

Accident Mars July 1st Celebration

The annual July 1st celebration this year was the scene of a tragic accident when the airplane owned by Mr. Ronnie Pawsey of Edmonton, and piloted by Mr. Edmund G. (Ted) Vassar, plummeted to the ground, instantly killing the pilot.

This all happened during a display of aerobatics given for the benefit of the crowd that were taking in the sports day. The pilot completed two loops at a very low level, and after coming out of the second loop was scheduled to go to a higher level and do a tail spin. Something must have gone wrong as the pilot never regained altitude, but started the spin from the loop. We are not good judges of height, but it is estimated that the spin started about 600 feet. Losing altitude very rapidly he never had time to pull the plane out and consequently the plane struck the ground nose first.

Mr. Pawsey and Ted Vassar had been flying to different sports days and celebrations where passengers were taken on flights since May 20th. The day Ronnie purchased the plane from an Edmonton air firm. The plane was a Taylorcraft, completely equipped with radio and was considered to be one of the best in its class of light planes.

On purchasing the plane, and not being a licensed flyer, Ronnie was contacted by Vassar to fly and instruct the owner that he might obtain his license. Here, since that time he has resided with Mr. and Mrs. Pawsey at their residence, 6 miles south of Edmonton. He was well liked and respected by all who knew him in his short stay of a month in the district.

Ted as he was called by all who knew him was 40 years of age and a pilot of long standing, having first received his training some 18 years ago at Buffalo in New York. He was born in British Columbia and received his education in Regina, moving to the East, he worked in Windsor for a while and for several years prior to the war, he was a pilot with the Northern Flying Service of Barrie, Ontario. He joined the R.C.A.F. in 1940 and with his previous experience he was immediately posted to staff pilot and instructional duties with the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan, which he held for over 5 years until the time of his discharge. He at one time held a post of chief flying instructor for the Border Cities Air Club at Windsor and immediately prior to his discharge, was at the No. 4 Bombing and Gunnery school at London. Mr. Vassar had over 6000 hours in the air and 18 years experience behind him. He had flown almost every type of aircraft made and held four different licenses, Transport, Commercial, Instructor and Air Engineer.

The plane is a total loss to the owner and was not covered by insurance. Ted being not married left to mourn, one brother and a father in Eastern Canada.

NOTE: Ronnie Pawsey states that there were various plane ride tickets sold prior to the crash that were never redeemed. He requested in the interview that we mention this fact and that if any person holding said tickets will communicate with him their money will be refunded.

Battle River U.F.W.A. Conference

The United Farm Women of the Battle River district were indeed fortunate this year in having perfect weather for the day of their conference June 28th.

The gathering was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Spencer, Edmonton. There were about sixty-five women in attendance.

The business session was presided over by Mrs. W. C. Taylor, U.F.W.A. Director for Battle River and Mrs. J. Deyell acted as secretary during the morning session.

Resolutions were passed asking that any further increased ration in sugar be given to the housewife rather than to manufacturers; asking that medical treatment and hospitalization for cancer be free similar to T.B. care; asking that old age pensions be made available at 60 years and that old age pensioners receive free medical and hospital care; asking the Federal Government to remove the 12 1/2% increase on farm machinery and repairs; asking that our divorce laws be revised; asking the Federal Government to increase educational grants to the province and asking the government to maintain price controls on necessities until such time as there is an adequate supply; asking that better teachers be provided for our schools and that province pay 50% of cost of education.

Arrangements were made for the locals to encourage the young people to taking athletic training and to give financial backing to boys and girls taking prizes at the school sports to enable them to participate in Provincial track meets.

Those present voted in favor of holding the Battle River U.F.W.A. and U.F.W.A. picnic at Mallick's Lake on July 6.

During the noon hour a delicious picnic lunch was served buffet style.

At the afternoon session the regular secretary, Mrs. W. T. Hays was present. ## Annual Sports Day Attract Huge Crowds

With the old weather man smiling and really turning on the heat, Wainwright saw one of the best sports days that has ever been staged. Crowds came from miles around bringing many from distances as far as Fort Saskatchewan to the west, north of Vermilion to the north, east of the border to the East and as far south as Highway 18 which passed Hardisty, Hughenden and Provost.

Many and varied were the competitions with ample contestants in each event. The only one that was rather lacking in competition was the handball which had only five teams entered. It was necessary to have six teams in this event in order to pay third prize, therefore, the third prize was not paid.

The prize money in every event was greater this year than any other before, which gave everybody a better brand of each competition. It has been said that the ball games were the best over to be seen in these parts for some time. The final handball game between Wainwright and Ribstone was one in question. After playing the full nine innings the teams were tied 3-3 and it was rather late the game was called on account of darkness. Both teams split first and second money which was $168.00.

The gate receipts amounted to just under the $1,000.00 mark at 50c for adults and the children under 10 years being admitted free. It is estimated that close to 4,000 men, women and children at one time or another wandered through the grounds.

It is no inconsiderable feat to conduct a sports and celebration day of the magnitude of that held yesterday (July 1st). The committees in charge of the various events and the executive are to be congratulated on the general excellence with which the day was conducted.

Amidst from the very unfortunate accident that took place, the day was considered to be a success. Fortunately more people were not hurt, as the plane crashed in a clearing to the north end of the race track. If the plane had crashed 300 yards south of the spot there is no telling just how many deaths and injuries would have been sustained.

The full list of prize winners follow, for which the star is indebted to the sports committee for keeping a record of the winners in each event. We would like to take this opportunity to thank all members of the committee for their splendid cooperation.

The winners are in order of first, second and third as they appear.

Farm Union Activities

A grand time was had by a big crowd who attended the sports at Paschenchule on June 23rd and the committee reported a very successful day.

The first prize in the soft ball tournament was won by the hard hitting team from Azile, second prize to Fabyan and the third to Paschenchule. The girls game between Fabyan and Paschenchule had to be called after the third inning on account of darkness.

We are sorry not to be able to list all the names of race winners, but we did see Dennis Tindall grab the grand pig. Art Kleinmeyer came in ahead puffing and groaning in the one half mile race, with Johnny LaPalme not a foot behind Mr. Tindall.

For the old men's race and Mrs. Florence Fisher won the ladies race.

At the dance in the school the same night, dancing room was at a premium as the biggest crowd in years jammed the school to capacity.

An A.F.U. booth was on the grounds and the committee in charge reported a successful day in contacting members.

The Farmer's Unseen Friend

Canada's luscious fruits and vegetables, meats, dairy products and cereals—all of the food products of the nation's farms, are sought eagerly in every corner of the world. They are "ready money" to the farmers of Canada.

But how to get your full share of that ready money is the question.

Riding with the farmers of Canada in tractors and trucks is the unseen, friendly Bank of Montreal, ready to help them to participate in the ready money that is offering for maximum production.

Mechanized equipment in the field—electrification of barns and homes—can increase tremendously the farmer's output and revenue. The Bank of Montreal and its "ready money" for the go-ahead farmer are invading the last stronghold of hand labour on the farm.

Mr. L. W. Smith, your own Bank of Montreal manager, knows how to make an applicant for a loan feel comfortable and at home. His attitude is: "When you ask for a loan at the B of M, you do not ask a favour."

DOWN "CANADA'S MAIN STREET"—The Trans-Canada Highway, which links province to province, from sea to sea, and opens the way to a great new era of tourist travel.

MEETING THE END OF THE TRAIL—J. V. Johnson and George Warren of the Victoria Automobile Club, meet Brigadier Macfarlane and his Chevrolet a few miles outside Victoria and escort him into the city.

THROUGH THE ROCKIES—The Chevrolet spent thrilling hours skirting steep precipices and climbing high mountain roads before it encountered this quiet little valley in Canada's Rocky Range.

THE AWARD—Winning of the Todd Medal, offered in 1912, became possible with completion of the Trans-Canada Highway. It is now awarded to Brig. R. A. Macfarlane for the first authenticated journey from Louisburg, Cape Breton, to Victoria, B.C., over a specified all-Canadian route.

THE PACIFIC—After 4,743 miles of rapid, trouble-free driving, Brigadier Macfarlane and his co-driver dip the front wheels of their Chevrolet in the Pacific Ocean—to win the A. E. Todd Gold Medal.

Rolling along "Canada's Main Street"—the Trans-Canada Highway—from coast to coast, Brigadier R. A. Macfarlane, D.S.O., at the wheel of a new 1946 Chevrolet Sedan, has just completed the first ocean-to-ocean automobile trip without leaving Canadian soil.

To win the A. E. Todd Gold Medal—offered in 1912 by the Mayor of Victoria—Brig. Macfarlane left Louisburg, Nova Scotia, with the aid of the Atlantic on his rear wheels, and after nine days of driving he arrived in Victoria, Vancouver Island, B.C., and dipped his front wheels in the Pacific, having covered 4,743 MILES.

The Chevrolet used was a stock 1946 model powered with a standard six-cylinder valve-in-head engine. It was selected by Brig. Macfarlane—who held the responsible posts of Director of Mechanization and Deputy Master-General of Ordnance at Defence Headquarters, Ottawa—because he is convinced that a "sturdy, light, economical passenger car is ideal for the average Canadian citizen." With his extensive experience of any vehicles, on the testing grounds and on active service in two wars, Brig. Macfarlane made the new Chevrolet his choice for his history-making trip—another "first" for Chevrolet.

No Colored Pigs*In Germany

The fifth annual field day for advanced Registry for swine was held at Lacombe, Alberta, on Saturday, June 22. Among those attending was Jack Perkins of Wainwright.

It was stated that if Canada wished to sell bacon in competition with Denmark on the British market she must produce more A pigs. The best Canadian bacon is just as good as the best Danish bacon only there isn't enough A Canadian bacon to threaten the Danish trade. However Canadian bacon has improved in quality over the past few years and the British demand for it has increased.

A Danish pure bred breeder must have a license to sell breeding swine. Definite laws are to be following. If laws are broken the license is cancelled. These strict laws are the secret to the high quality Danish bacon.

Mr. M. Syrotack of the Dominion Livestock Production Service gave his observations of Swine Breeding and Production in Ireland, Denmark and Germany. Mr. Syrotack was a major in the Canadian army and had the opportunity of making these observations while stationed in the above mentioned countries.

In Germany there are laws concerning the raising and selling of pure bred pigs also. The German laws go even further. Major Syrotack observed that there were no colored pigs in Denmark or Germany. He asked a German Agricultural official what would happen if a farmer kept a colored pig. The German replied, "I don't know." "But you must know" insisted Major Syrotack. The German official didn't know because no farmer had ever dared to keep a colored pig to find out. —Con.

THOSE PINK SLIPS

Every year about this time, and it is as inevitable as death, those darned tax notices start coming through the mail and like it or not there is very little that we can do about it.

This year the M.D.'s are on buff colored paper and the Towns are on a pink paper (a very nice job of printing if we do say so ourselves) and the Towns, being of a new form, are much easier to read and understand.

We will try and give a break-down of the budget for 1946-47 for the town and try and explain some of the facts of the case. Mr. Don Pawsey states that many collections have all ready been made but there has been quite a bit of explaining to do in each case.

The main big item on this year's tax notice is the reduction of the discount from 10% to 5%. While this comes as a surprise to many it must be pointed out that the 10% discount was a depression measure and has been in force ever since. Wainwright was one of the very few places that offered 10% reduction for prompt payment. 5% has been the accepted thing in every other locality.

The one thing that before at 10% discount the discount was deductible from only the municipal and school taxes while the hospital and Provincial Social Service tax was paid at a net rate. This year the 5% discount will be deductible from the whole amount, which will tend to make things much easier to figure. Last year the discount for prompt payment cost the taxpayers $4,000.00, but this year it is hoped to save half of that if the same high level of collections are made. After all there is very little sense of raising the mill rate to collect more money and then giving an enormous discount. It is just putting it in one pocket and taking it from the other.

Revenues last year from sources other than land taxes, such as, interest on bonds, dog taxes, poll taxes, etc., amounted to $5,835.00, while the estimated revenue for this year amounts to $5,345.00. Estimated revenue from land and improvement taxes this year are expected to bring $44,220.00.

The estimated expenditures for the ensuing year are broken down as follows, $19,390.00 for schools; $2800.00 for the hospital; $627 for the Provincial government and $2525.00 for debenture retiring that we incurred in 1929 at the time of the fire. While this is rather factual and to some people rather boring, we are trying to point out that all money collected in one way or another is not used directly in the town operation.

At the present estimate of expenditures it only leaves a little better than $24,000.00 to run the affairs of the town which is only $2,000.00 per month. It is facts like these that tend to explain to the taxpayer just where his dollars go. We all realize that it is impossible to have cement sidewalks in front of the door when sometimes there are many other uses for the money. Of course, to some degree, we could all have those finer things in life but that only means one thing, higher taxation. If we want higher taxation the best thing to do is to let the Council know and we will no doubt see some action along this regard. On the other hand the general cry is that the taxes are too high at present, therefore, the Council is trying to get the most done, spending the least amount of money.

We often see in other papers that such and such a town or city have a tax rate of 35 or 40 mills or more, but it still is lower than ours and we are prone to believe that they have something that we haven't. If we peer much closer into the situation we will no doubt find that their tax structure is based on a much higher assessment. If this is the case, it is much better in our opinion to have the lower assessment and the high mill rate than to have the high assessment and the low mill rate. The provincial government imposes what is called a Social Service tax, on all property, which in this case this year amounts to .30 mills. If the assessment is high it is quite readily seen that it will amount to more tax than if a low assessment is in force. While it does not amount to very much money it would be an increase.

Wainwright works on a 60% assessment for improvements and 100% assessment of land. This is unique, as again, we are one of the few that work on such a low assessment. Other towns and places work on a higher assessment, therefore, their mill rates are much lower.

We have more or less wandered from the title of this editorial, re "Pink Slips", but we have tried to point out a few of the facts concerning municipal taxes as it applies to you, the taxpayer. If you have not received your tax notice yet, you will, we when you think the taxes are up from last year wait just a minute and count to ten and then look again. You will find that there has been very little increase or decrease one way or the other. The total amount to be paid will be slightly greater due to the change in the discount set up, but all in all we think that you will find there has been very little change in the taxes. After all the mill rate has been lowered from 60 mills to 58 mills and all things being equal there should be very little difference in your taxes this year over last.

45-SECOND PREVIEW

A special technical assignment at Jasper Park Lodge turned out to be a memorable experience for Gordon Shillabeer, CICA's chief engineer. Gordie was given the assignment of over-hauling the Lodge broadcasting equipment in preparation for the Rotary International District Convention, and soon after arrival found himself rubbing elbows with Bing Crosby, Joan Fontaine and all the Paramount Production staff at present "shooting" the picture "Emperor of the North Pole".

He actually saw the shooting of a 45-second scene by Bing and Joan "at the entrance to the King's estate" on Mount Edith. He heard Bing sing, "I'm a 'good Joe' all the way". He saw the Mercedes car that actually belonged to the Royalty and is now being used in the production. He saw the proof photo in marvelous technical. He spoke to Bing and is now more convinced than ever that he's a "good Joe" all the way.

Watching the shooting of the gateway scene was a 45-second preview that Gordie will never forget.

TELLING ALBERTANS ABOUT ALBERTA

CICA's geographic relationship to its audience is the exception rather than the rule, that there are more than two rural listeners to every urban fan. According to the latest official census figures (1941) CICA's listening area is inhabited by 471,677 potential fans, and only 166,581 reside in cities, towns and villages.

Sales conscious business and communities outside of Edmonton are rapidly capitalizing on this unique situation with the result that home-town programs are proving very popular.

At the present time, Vegreville, Ponoka, and Lac La Biche are on the air regularly, and Kenna's Tire Service program titled "Hats Off in Salute" pays tribute to a different town and its surrounding district each week, having publicized to date, Viking, Vegreville, Lac La Biche, Wetaskiwin, Vermilion, Ponoka, St. Paul and Camrose. Others stand ready to take their turn at telling the rest of Alberta about their thriving community.

It's a combination of straight business, public service and educating Albertans about Alberta.

Answer For The Atomic Age

By Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd
I have profound admiration and respect for "Atomic Re-Armament." I think that freedom is on the decline in the world and that it can be a factor in saving that freedom, and Christianity too.

There is a fundamental reason why freedom is in jeopardy in the world. Transportation and communication have shrunk the world and made neighbors of the nations. That means a tremendous interdependence of human relations. We have created an environment that we have not been able to fit ourselves into.

This group has the answer to how to fit the human race into this extraordinary environment we have created with the advance of science. I have known a good deal about this group. They remind me of the Apostles of old. They have left their homes and their comfort, and they go about the world without any pay, giving unselfishly with great self-sacrifice—they are the hardest working outfit I know—working for this great cause of saving freedom in the world.

They have got to save freedom, because material sciences have gone so far ahead of the science of human relations. That is really what they are fighting for.

I wish them all the luck in the world and God's blessing in their tremendous effort. They have already done wonderful work which I know from my own personal knowledge is bringing co-operation in this country. I believe if we back up this group—and I believe everybody should back it—that this answer will infiltrate all over the world. This is the only group working along this line. It is the only answer for the atomic age.

Four theatrical films in German have been completed by the National Film Board for distribution through the occupation authorities in Germany. The Board has also prepared five non-theatrical films for wide distribution through similar channels.

Hostesses Play Their Part In Can. 'Save Food' Camp.

Women from coast to coast are taking keen interest in the Dominion Government's programme for food relief for the hungry areas abroad. By mail and telephone the Canadian Food Information Committee is being questioned as to ways and means for practical participation in the "Save Food" campaign.

"I'm tired of DON'TS," complains Mrs. Jones. "Give us a few DO'S for food conservation."—"I do want to help," says Mrs. Brown. "But I want to entertain my friends, occasionally too."—"It seems inhospitable not to feed the club members when the meeting is in my home," protests Mrs. Smith.

Be frugal with food, generous with friendship, is a first principle for hostesses laid down by the Food Information Committee. You'll enjoy your guests more, if your time and energy have not been spent in elaborate preparations for their entertainment. When you plan refreshments, err on the side of too little, rather than too much. (Incidentally, the friend who finds it hard to stick to her reducing diet will bless you for not tempting her with sandwiches, cakes or pie.) The club meeting will be quite as interesting without food—or with refreshments reduced to a minimum.

There can be no peace in a world where there is famine—and Canadian women can best campaign against hunger overseas by food conservation in their homes.

Boards Should Arrange For Division of Coupons

One of the most frequent ration coupon complaints received by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board concerns division of coupons between landladies and homes of part time boarders. Because circumstances vary in each case, the Board has no hard and fast rules on the subject, Board officials point out. There is only one rule that must be observed, ration coupons remain the property of the holder of the ration book until consent has been given for their use.

The problem is one that must be settled by using common sense, Board officials point out. Frequently trouble is caused by landladies of boarders who go home for the weekends. In other cases, mothers of teachers or students who come home for the summer holidays complain that their landladies have used all the rationing sugar.

In these cases, the boarder should arrange with the landlady an equitable division of the coupons on the proportion of meals during the year obtained in the boarding house. Board officials emphasize that disagreements are usually avoided by prior arrangements.

EXERCISE ESSENTIAL

Exercise is essential to physical and mental well-being at all ages, according to authorities at headquarters of National Health and Welfare. "Give yourself a break," advises the department. "Don't break down. Physical fitness is an entirely personal matter. Dress right, stand straight, walk confidently. Keep clean, vigorous and young. Depending upon what your family physician advises, get some sort of exercise if you would preserve good health."

State Of The World

A husband stormed bitterly into his den. "Of all the wives I could have picked," he fumed, "then his eye fell on a new-age chameleon. I married a friend. Why not try a new life before a new wife?" he read. "If conditions are unbearable at home perhaps you are the bear. And, if two people can't learn to live together and like it, what hope have we for the world's two billion?"

Something broke inside the man. He went back into the room where his wife was mutely sitting. "I am really sorry," he said.

When self-interest in two people strain marital relations they will break their legal union fast enough. The married state alone does not hold them together. But common loyalty to the ideals of marriage, and of what it can mean to the world and to democracy, will help the match survive.

When sixty different national interests strain international relations, the legal union of an organized world state will not hold them together. It will take wholehearted loyalty to some great common ideal, one nation—one world—indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

This really could be made the state of the world if inspired in other countries by a people who enjoy this state themselves. By a nation indivisible because it is made up of indivisible families. Free because, through common loyalty, they have found it possible to trust each other. Just because they live to give instead of grab. Here are the foundations for a world state held together by bonds stronger than any treaties or laws.

MAXIMUM PRICES OF HENS

To discourage early slaughtering of laying hens and thus maintain maximum egg production across Canada, the period during which fowl (hens) may sell at the highest price level has been extended from June 30 to July 31, the Wartime Prices and Trade Board has announced.

Board officials explained that because of the unusually cool weather the majority of flocks were still in good laying condition and by extending the high price period, poultrymen would be encouraged to hold the fowl for a longer period.

Under the previous order the price would have dropped 2½ cents per pound on July 1. The drop is now scheduled to take place August 1.

AN INDUSTRY Pledged TO THE FURTHERANCE OF AGRICULTURE

Founded and developed on the basis of helpfulness to the farmer, the implement industry is entirely dependent on the prosperity of agriculture for its own success.

Through the years, the implement maker has, with quality of product and genuinely helpful service, won the high regard and goodwill of the users of his product. There are few farmers who do not value sincerely the service of the implement company.

The farmer and the implement maker have mutual interests in the welfare of agriculture and its progress towards higher standards and improved methods. Working for the common cause both have contributed much to the betterment of farming in general.

In the past, new developments in equipment have enabled the farmer to do his work in less time and at less cost. Such equipment has helped the farmer offset adverse conditions such as drought and soil drifting, to combat insect pests and other types of crop destroyers, and to replace manpower in times of labour shortage. The self-binder, the tractor and power farming machines, the one-way disc and the pull-type combine, each in its time has helped the farmer in making his efforts successful and profitable.

Achievements in the past have been notable and fruitful. Setbacks from time to time delayed but did not prevent the onward march of agriculture. And the future will bring advances in farming, too.

The self-propelled combine, perfected by Massey-Harris prior to the war, has opened up new fields of possibilities in implement engineering, and other new machine developments assure that, in his efforts to further improve agriculture, there will be available to the farmer equipment that will offer greater advantages in saving time, labour and expense. Massey-Harris is proud of its long association with the farmers of Canada in promoting the welfare of agriculture.

Hints for the Household

SUBSTANTIAL SALADS

Summer seemed to be just around the corner for some time but it is here now with fine warm weather. Besides bringing hot weather, summer also means longer days to work and play out-of-doors. In many cases outdoor activities may take place some distance from the home and it may be necessary to carry lunches.

Since a hot meal is often out of the question, the homemaker must prepare something that will be sufficiently substantial to satisfy keen appetites. In many instances, a substantial salad is the logical answer since a salad may include meat or fish, eggs, cheese and vegetables, raw or cooked. Care should be taken, when a salad is to be carried, to have all ingredients thoroughly drained before being mixed; otherwise the texture and appearance of the salad would be mushy and unappetizing. Glass jars with a good lid make good containers for salads. Lettuce should be carried in a separate container or wrapped in waxed paper in a paper bag or tea towel.

The same salads may be prepared to serve for the family lunch or supper at home. The home economists of the Consumer Section of the Dominion Department of Agriculture are suggesting recipes for salads such as these.

Lima Beans Salad

4 cups cooked lima beans
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
4 tablespoons mayonnaise
1/4 teaspoon curry powder

2 tomatoes, chopped coarsely
2 or 3 radishes, chopped
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1 cup chopped cucumber
1/4 cup chopped green onion
1/2 teaspoon vinegar
Pickles or a small amount of grated cheese (if desired) may be added or substituted as wished. This salad gives

Jasper Lodge Opens

Jasper Park Lodge officially opened its 25th season on June 14, with the arrival of delegates to the annual convention of the International Rotary District.

Unofficially, the lodge had been operating for several days in advance of the official opening as this world renowned Canadian Rockies summer resort was the headquarters for the Paramount movie party, headed by Bing Crosby and Joan Fontaine, who took mountain scenes for their forthcoming spectacular technical film "The Emperor Waltz". Bookings at Jasper are the heaviest in the history of the lodge and these include a large number of prominent citizens of the United States and Canada.

Pasteurized milk is the only safe milk.

Carb Motor Thefts

By Locking Doors

An appeal to motorists to make certain that their cars are left properly locked when unattended has been made by officials of the Alberta Motor Association.

In various centres of the province, there have been reports of stolen cars and unless vigorous precautions are taken, these may increase, though police are reported to be on the alert for such possibilities.

Some interesting sidelights on auto thefts have been revealed by the U.S. Secret Service. It has found that 65 per cent of all auto thefts are committed by youngsters under 31 years of age.

A special study in an eastern city disclosed that over a five year period more than 90 per cent of the stolen cars had been left unattended with the key in the ignition switch. Also, 10 per cent of the cars parked in the street either had the key in the switch or readily accessible under the sun visor. The moral is—lock your car and keep the key.

DIET RULES

Home-makers, and particularly those responsible for preparation of family menus, are reminded by the Department of National Health and Welfare, Ottawa, of importance of carefully-selected foods in ensuring health, both mental and physical, and in maintaining morale. Literature on the healthful foods is available, on request, from the Provincial Health department.

For many of our borrowing customers, saving is still the prime consideration. For them, the time to borrow is equally the time to save ... borrowing and saving go hand in hand.

Thousands of our borrowers have sizable holdings of Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates, which they leave with us for safekeeping. Indeed, a good many have substantial cash reserves in their savings accounts.

Why, then, do they borrow from the Bank? Simply because they want to keep their savings intact and undisturbed—at a bank of security.

These people are performing a real service not only to themselves, but to their fellow citizens and to the country at large ...

By maintaining their programme of regular saving, they are guarding against inflation.

How? ... By conservation.

Conservation in personal financing is practised by a large proportion of our customers. By borrowing for some useful purpose, and by making regular repayments on their loans, they are—in reality—saving for a useful purpose, and increasing profitable production for the community. Meanwhile, they are keeping their savings intact.

This is wise spending, wise borrowing and wise saving.

These people are good customers, they are good citizens and their personal financing is sound.

This is conservation—the first requisite for personal security—the first attribute of good citizenship ...

C.L.A. Hold Successful Dance

The dance held on Wednesday, June 28th in the Separate School Auditorium, sponsored by the Catholic Ladies Aid, proved a real success. Lucky winners for the door prizes of five pounds of sugar each proved to be Messrs. F. G. Roberts and Fred Smith of Wainwright, and Messrs. Paul Webber and D. M. Smith of Edmonton.

A total of $83.90 was realized after all expenses were paid and this was donated to the P.M.C. Fund.

SUGAR FOR CANNING

Second half of the ten-pound allotment of sugar for home canning will be available to consumers with the validating of sugar-preserves coupons $17 to $21, inclusive, on July 4, the Wartime Prices and Trade Board has announced. The first half of the allotment coupons, $9 to $12 inclusive became valid on May 2. These ten coupons will be in addition to the two regular S coupons valid monthly. Quota users who house permanent residents may also apply for sugar for canning in addition to their regular sugar-preserves quota, provided they obtain S coupons from their residents. However, no coupons may be detached from the residents' ration books for this purpose without written authority from the bookholders. All letters of authority, forms of which may be obtained from a branch of the Ration Administration, must be attached to application.

Rationing Regulations

In Canada

Sugar, butter and meat are rationed in Canada. It is necessary to have ration coupons before these items can be purchased. Tourists who visit Canada for seven days or longer will be able to obtain temporary ration cards. Tourists don't need these cards when they are stopping at hotels or boarding houses. Temporary ration cards may be obtained at Local Ration Boards which are located in many districts throughout the west. In this district American tourists should go to the Local Ration Board at Wainwright. It is illegal to sell or to purchase any rationed commodities without surrendering coupons.

Tourists planning to take rationed commodities back to United States are advised that custom regulations permit meat, butter and preserves to be taken out up to $5 in value. Over that amount an export permit is required. Dressed poultry may not be taken back unless a permit is secured.

A United States resident returning to his country will be required to surrender U.S. ration points for any sugar he takes across the border. This applies even if he has obtained the sugar in Canada on a temporary ration card issued by the WPTB to American tourists.

American tourists eating in public eating places will find there are restrictions on the use of rationed commodities. There are two mealtime days a week, Tuesdays and Fridays. Meat may not be served in public eating places in the 24 hour-period commencing at four a.m. on Tuesdays and Fridays. Butter must be served in small pots of a limited size and only one pat at a serving. Many public eating places have, because of the shortage of butter, voluntarily cut out the serving of butter between certain hours in the day. Sugar servings are also limited to two lumps or one teaspoonful at a meal.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

June 15, 1946.

Editor,
Wainwright Star,
Wainwright, Alberta.

At the recent Annual Meeting of Central Council of The Canadian Red Cross Society, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"This Central Council of the Canadian Red Cross Society hereby expresses its thanks to the medical, dental, nursing and teaching professions for their assistance and advice in the work of the Society throughout the war."

"The Society pays tribute to the many thousands of voluntary workers and particularly to the women of Canada who made possible the outstanding achievements of the Red Cross during the past years."

"We would appreciate if you would kindly convey on behalf of the Central Council its thanks to the medical, dental and teaching professions and all voluntary workers in your district for their assistance and advice in the work of our Society."

Yours faithfully,
D. H. TOMLINSON
Commissioner,
Alberta Division, C.R.C.S.

BERRIES' REGULATIONS
CLARIFIED

Because of the many changes in regulations governing sales of strawberries and raspberries, the Wartime Prices and Trade Board has issued the following clarifying statement.

First: prior ceiling regulations were suspended on fresh strawberries and raspberries.

The Board also announced that effective May 10, restrictions on sale and distribution of fruit processed in British Columbia by heat sterilization, freezing, or in 802 are lifted.

Officials pointed out that while shippers and producers may now sell fruit in these forms without restrictions, all fresh and processed fruit, excepting fresh and frozen blueberries are still under export permit control from the Department of Trade and Commerce.

The Board emphasized the fact that the removal of these restrictions do not apply to the sale and distribution of processed jams and jellies.

Summer vacationists! If you can't buy pasteurized milk pasteurize your own.

Do You Need A Frozen Food Locker?

WE THINK YOU DO--

The modern trend of preservation of food is by freezing. The old method of chilling with ice only delays decomposition for a short time, whereas quick freezing retains the food value indefinitely.

Processing fruits and meats by sugar and salt requires considerable time and effort, and is satisfactory providing the jars or cans remain hermetically sealed. Quick freezing saves you time and inconvenience. Fruits and vegetables when processed at a Frozen Food Locker Plant, are as fresh in flavor and form as if they had just been harvested from your own gardens.

In 1945 approximately a billion pounds of food products were preserved by freezing. The Quick Freeze industry expects by 1950 the volume of 3 1/2 billion pounds of food stuffs will be handled, and this will require 100,000 stores and locker plants.

So far in Alberta the majority of the Locker
Plants are in the southern part of the province.
Nearby points with lockers, or under installation are—Edmonton, Millet, Fort Saskatchewan, Vegreville, Lloydminster, Viking, Edgerton, Provost, Vermilion and your Co-op store is an ideal location for a Locker Plant. Plan to purchase a locker the next time you are in the store.
